

SESSION 6-2

HOW CAN CONSTITUTIONS DEAL WITH COVID-19?

Date: September 29, 2020 (Tue.)

Time: 14:30-18:00 (JST) 1:30-5:00 (EDT), 7:30-11:00 (CET)

Style: Online (Pre-registration required, no participation fee)

Language: English (English-Japanese simultaneous translation provided)

CDC/ Alissa Eckert, MSMI; Dan Higgins, MAMS

“The French Constitution facing COVID-19 crisis:
How the exceptional is made normal”

Marie-Laure Basilien-Gainche (Professor, Jean Moulin Lyon 3 University)

“COVID-19 and the Swiss Constitution”

Véronique Boillet (Associate Professor, University of Lausanne)

“COVID-19 and the US Constitution”

Jeffrey Miller

(Project Manager, Academy of European Law, European University Institute)

“COVID-19 and the Japanese Constitution”

Hajime Akiyama (Assistant Professor, University of Tsukuba)

Discussants

Comparative Law

Joelle Grogan
(Senior Lecturer in Law, Middlesex University London)

Public Health

Yukiko Wagatsuma
(Professor,
University of Tsukuba)

Politics

Giorgio Shani
(Professor, International Christian University)

Titles of presentation, presenters and discussants are subject to change.

筑波大学
University of Tsukuba

Registration Deadline: Sep. 23, 2020 (JST).

Visit the following website.

https://tgs.w.tsukuba.ac.jp/update/session_en/418/

Contact: akiyama.hajime.gp@u.tsukuba.ac.jp

